

Guidelines for Submission of Final e - Poster

Digital Health Day 2026

1. File Format & Naming *Use ppt.to to create the poster, then convert as a *PDF file for final submission. *Submit in PDF (mandatory for final submission) and PNG (recommended for presentation) *File name: EPoster_PresenterName_AbstractID.pdf *Maximum file size: 15 MB	6. Language & Formatting *Use clear and professional English. *Avoid grammatical and spelling errors.
2. Poster Dimensions & Layout *Aspect ratio: 16:9 *Minimum: 1920×1080 pixels *Preferred: 3840×2160 pixels (4K) *Landscape orientation *Maintain a clear, readable layout with proper margins. *Minimum font size :Title ≥ 60 pt, Headings 36–48 pt, Body ≥ 28 pt *Use clear fonts (Arial/ Calibri) *Poster should be a single page only	6. Originality & Ethics *Content must be original and not previously published. *Properly cite all sources. *Ensure patient confidentiality
3. Content Structure *Include the following sections: Title of the study Author(s) and affiliation(s) Background / Introduction Objectives Methods Results (with charts/figures) Conclusion References (optional) The content structure may be adapted based on the type of study. However, poster should broadly follow the given content structure.	7. Submission Process *Submit via the designated email. *Include: Presenting Author's name, Abstract ID, Registration ID and contact details. *Adhere strictly to the submission deadline.
4. Visual Design *Use high-resolution images and graphs (minimum 300 dpi). *Use minimal text and more visuals (charts, diagrams, icons etc) *Provide captions for all images. *Use bullet points *Max 6–8 lines per section *Maximum Words Count: 500-700	8. Review & Acceptance *Posters will be reviewed by the Scientific Committee *Authors will be notified regarding acceptance or required modifications *Display will be on digital screens
5. Font size and Readability *	9. Presentation (if applicable) *Presenters should be available during the poster session. *A short oral explanation (3-5 minutes) will be required. *Be prepared to answer questions from the judges
Submit your final e-poster to: digihealth.kaher@gmail.com Last Date of Submission: 10.05.2026

