

Guidelines for Submission of Final e - Poster

Digital Health Day 2026

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. File Format &amp; Naming*Use ppt.to create the poster, then convert as a *PDF file for final submission.*Submit the e-poster in PDF format only.*File name should follow this format:EPoster_PresenterName_AbstractID.pdf*Ensure the file size does not exceed 10–15 MB                                                                                                                                              | 6. Language &amp; Formatting*Use clear and professional English.*Avoid grammatical and spelling errors.*Use bullet points instead of long paragraphs                                               |
| 2. Poster Dimensions &amp; Layout*Recommended size: 16.9) aspect ratio 1920x1080 pixels) – (widescreen format)*Orientation- Landscape*Maintain a clear, readable layout with proper margins.*Use a minimum font size of 24 pt for body text.*Poster should be a single page only                                                                                                                                 | 6. Originality &amp; Ethics*Content must be original and not previously published.*Properly cite all sources.*Ensure patient confidentiality                                                       |
| 3. Content Structure*Include the following sections:Title of the studyAuthor(s) and affiliation(s)Background / IntroductionObjectivesMethodsResults (with charts/figures)ConclusionReferences (optional)The content structure may be adapted based on the type of study. However, poster should broadly follow the given content structure. | 7. Submission Process*Submit via the designated email.*Include: Presenting Author's name, Abstract ID, Registration ID and contact details.*Adhere strictly to the submission deadline.            |
| 4. Visual Design*Use high-resolution images and graphs (minimum 300 dpi).*Maintain consistent colour schemes and fonts, and use high contrast colours*Use minimal text and more visuals (charts, diagrams, icons etc)*Provide captions for all images.                                                                                                                                                                             | 8. Review &amp; Acceptance*Posters will be reviewed by the Scientific Committee*Authors will be notified regarding acceptance or required modifications                                                |
| 5. Font size and Readability*Title : 60-100 pt*Section Headings: 36-50pt*Body text: Minimum 28-36pt*Content should be readable from a distance of 2-3 meters                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 9. Presentation (if applicable)*Presenters should be available during the poster session.*A short oral explanation (3-5 minutes) will be required.*Be prepared to answer questions from the judges |
| Submit your final e-poster to: digihealth.kaher@gmail.comLast Date of Submission: 10.05.2026                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |

