

Guidelines for Submission of Final e - Poster

Digital Health Day 2026

1. File Format & Naming *Use ppt.to create the poster, then convert as a *PDF file for final submission. *Submit the e-poster in PDF format only. *File name should follow this format: EPoster_PresenterName_AbstractID.pdf *Ensure the file size does not exceed 10–15 MB	6. Language & Formatting *Use clear and professional English. *Avoid grammatical and spelling errors. *Use bullet points instead of long paragraphs
2. Poster Dimensions & Layout *Recommended size: 16.9) aspect ratio 1920x1080 pixels) – (widescreen format) *Orientation- Landscape *Maintain a clear, readable layout with proper margins. *Use a minimum font size of 24 pt for body text. *Poster should be a single page only	6. Originality & Ethics *Content must be original and not previously published. *Properly cite all sources. *Ensure patient confidentiality
3. Content Structure *Include the following sections: Title of the study Author(s) and affiliation(s) Background / Introduction Objectives Methods Results (with charts/figures) Conclusion References (optional) The content structure may be adapted based on the type of study. However, poster should broadly follow the given content structure.	7. Submission Process *Submit via the designated email. *Include: Presenting Author's name, Abstract ID, Registration ID and contact details. *Adhere strictly to the submission deadline.
4. Visual Design *Use high-resolution images and graphs (minimum 300 dpi). *Maintain consistent colour schemes and fonts, and use high contrast colours *Use minimal text and more visuals (charts, diagrams, icons etc) *Provide captions for all images.	8. Review & Acceptance *Posters will be reviewed by the Scientific Committee *Authors will be notified regarding acceptance or required modifications
5. Font size and Readability *Title : 60-100 pt *Section Headings: 36-50pt *Body text: Minimum 28-36pt *Content should be readable from a distance of 2-3 meters Maximum Words Count: 500-800	9. Presentation (if applicable) *Presenters should be available during the poster session. *A short oral explanation (3-5 minutes) will be required. *Be prepared to answer questions from the judges
Submit your final e-poster to: digihealth.kaher@gmail.com Last Date of Submission: 10.05.2026	